

HONOR IN DRILLS AND MARCHING

By Misheck Mwanza (Mishcool)

WHAT IS DRILL?

Drill is the systematic practice of movements and commands used to train a group of people to move, stand, and act together in an orderly, disciplined, and coordinated manner. In Pathfinders, drill helps members learn obedience, teamwork, alertness, discipline, and unity.

Drill involves standing positions, turns, marching movements, formations, and commands given by a leader and obeyed instantly and correctly by members.

WHAT IS MARCHING?

Marching is a part of drill that involves moving from one place to another in an organized and rhythmic way, following commands and keeping step with others.

OBJECTIVES OF DRILL

Drill is taught in Pathfinders to:

1. Promote discipline and obedience
2. Teach teamwork and unity
3. Develop alertness and quick response
4. Build confidence and leadership

5. Encourage respect for authority

6. Improve posture and bearing

BASIC DRILL TERMS (DEFINITIONS)

Drill – Organized training of movements and commands to promote discipline, coordination, and unity.

Marching – Moving in an orderly, rhythmic manner while keeping step.

Formation – Arrangement of members in a specific order.

Line – Members standing side by side.

Rank – A single line of members side by side.

File – Members standing one behind another.

Interval – Space between members side by side.

Distance – Space between members front to back.

Column – Two or more files arranged front to back.

Cover – Proper alignment of members behind one another.

Flank – The right or left side of a formation.

Cadence – The rhythm or beat of marching.

Attention – A position of alertness and readiness.

Stand at Ease – A relaxed position with one foot in place, silence maintained.

At Ease – Relaxed position where quiet talking is allowed.

Parade Rest – A respectful resting position used during ceremonies.

Mark Time – Marching in place without moving forward.

Quick Time – Normal marching pace.

Double Time – Faster marching pace, almost running.

Hand Salute – A sign of respect using the right hand.

Present Arms – A formal salute position.

Order Arms – Returning arms to the resting position.

Right Face – Turning 90 degrees to the right.

Left Face – Turning 90 degrees to the left.

About Face – Turning 180 degrees.

Right Flank – Turning right while marching.

Left Flank – Turning left while marching.

Column Right – Turning a column formation to the right.

Column Left – Turning a column formation to the left.

Rear March – Turning around while marching.

Halt – Command to stop marching.

Fall Out – Command allowing members to leave formation.

Preparatory Command – Tells what movement is coming.

Command of Execution – Tells when to perform the movement.

STANDING POSITIONS (DEFINITIONS)

Attention – The basic position of readiness. Heels together, toes slightly apart, body erect, arms straight at the sides, eyes front, silent and alert.

Stand at Ease – A relaxed position. One foot moved to the side, hands behind the back, silence maintained, no movement unless ordered.

At Ease – A relaxed position where members may move slightly and talk quietly, but must remain standing and in place.

Parade Rest – A respectful resting position. Feet shoulder-width apart, hands clasped behind the back, head and eyes forward, silence observed.

MOVEMENTS AT HALT (DEFINITIONS)

Right Face – Turning 90 degrees to the right on the heel and toe.

Left Face – Turning 90 degrees to the left on the heel and toe.

About Face – Turning 180 degrees to face the opposite direction.

Dress Right Dress – Command used to align the formation properly.

Present Arms – A formal salute given on command.

Order Arms – Returning arms to the resting position after saluting.

Fall Out – Command allowing members to leave formation but remain nearby.

MARCHING MOVEMENTS (DEFINITIONS)

Mark Time – Marching in place without moving forward.

Forward March – Command to begin marching forward.

Halt – Command to stop marching.

Right Flank – Turning 90 degrees to the right while marching.

Left Flank – Turning 90 degrees to the left while marching.

Column Right – Turning a column formation to the right while marching.

Column Left – Turning a column formation to the left while marching.

Rear March – Turning around while marching and moving in the opposite direction.

COMMANDS IN DRILL

A drill command has two parts:

1. Preparatory command – Tells what movement to prepare for
2. Command of execution – Tells when to perform the movement

IMPORTANCE OF DRILLS AND MARCHING IN PATHFINDERS

Prepares members for ceremonies and parades

Helps in flag raising and lowering

Builds confidence and coordination

Encourages respect, order, and teamwork

GUIDON DRILL

Guidon – A small flag used to identify a Pathfinder unit during drills and ceremonies.

Order Guidon – The guidon rests on the ground beside the bearer's right foot.

Carry Guidon – The guidon is held upright in front of the bearer while marching.

Present Guidon – The guidon is lowered forward as a sign of salute during ceremonies.

Raise Guidon – The guidon is lifted upright at the command during parades or flag ceremonies.

Salute at Order – Salute given while the guidon is at the order position.

Salute at Carry – Salute given while the guidon is carried upright.

Importance of Guidon Drill:

Identifies the unit

Adds discipline and beauty to drill

Used during ceremonies, parades, and flag services

FLAG CARE AND RESPECT (DETAILED NOTES)

The national flag is a symbol of unity, authority, and respect. In Pathfinder activities, proper handling of the flag shows discipline and honor.

Rules for Flag Use

The flag must always be treated with respect and dignity.

It should never touch the ground, floor, or water.

The flag should not be used as clothing, decoration, or covering.

It must be flown only during daylight unless properly illuminated at night.

No touching of flag if not in uniform

Raising the Flag

The flag should be raised briskly and smartly.

All members should stand at attention and salute while it is being raised.

During a ceremony, commands must be clear and orderly.

Lowering the Flag

The flag should be lowered slowly and respectfully.

Members should stand at attention and salute until the flag is completely lowered.

Folding the Flag

The flag should be folded neatly and correctly.

Folding should be done carefully to avoid dragging it on the ground.

Only trained members should fold the flag during ceremonies.

Storage of the Flag

Store the flag in a clean, dry place.

Do not place heavy objects on top of it.

Keep it away from dirt, moisture, and insects.

Care of the Flag

Wash or clean the flag when dirty, following proper methods.

Replace the flag when it becomes torn or faded.

Old or damaged flags should be disposed of respectfully, not thrown away.

Importance of Flag Care in Pathfinders

Teaches respect and patriotism

Builds discipline and responsibility

Prepares members for official ceremonies

CONCLUSION

Drills and marching train Pathfinders in discipline, unity, respect, and leadership. Mastery of drill movements and terms prepares members for ceremonies, parades, and effective teamwork.